

Toby K9 Dawg
University of North Texas
P.O. Box 311280
Denton, TX 76203-1280
Toby K9@unt.edu

ACADEMIC HISTORY

August 2003-present University of North Texas
Graduate candidate in Animal Psychology Post Doctoral program

PUBLIC SERVICE

Nov 2003-present American Canine Hospice: Certified Animal Hospice Volunteer

HONORS

Dec 2004 Phi Beta Woof² (National Honor Society for Adorable Pets)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Animal Psychological Association
Society of Animal Behavioral Medicine
People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals – Life member

RESEARCH INTERESTS/ACTIVITIES

Current research interests include pet allergies, animal rescue, Chiropractic care for abandoned animals, and canine obsession for moving cars.

PRIOR RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Aug 2003-present University of North Texas: Research Associate to Mark Vosvick, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Psychology. Directing and overseeing the conceptualization, development, data collection, and data analyses of a qualitative and quantitative study investigating psychosocial factors in Dogoholism.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Jan 2003-May 2003 University of Wisconsin: Teaching Assistant for Undergraduate Course: On the road again: RVing with Toby. (Dr. Mark Vosvick, Instructor)

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Nov 2004: 4 hours of training in bites and braces for dogs. Training provided by Dr. Nathan Smith, Ph.D., Texas Women's University.

PRESENTATIONS

Dawg, T., & Vosvick, M.. Positive and negative affect: Differential influence of coping with your pets during Christmas and Chinese New Year. Poster presented at the Animal Psychological Association Conference, Madison, Wisconsin., August 2004.